

Barney Barnicott

Producer/Mixer

Barney has gained a reputation as one of the UK's leading Mixers collaborating with artists from Kasabian & Editors to Stereophonics & Bombay Bicycle Club. His long-standing relationship with Jim Abbiss has seen him mix records for him such as Arctic Monkeys' debut 'Whatever People Say I Am, That's What I'm Not' and The Temper Trap's 'Confessions', all of which have been received to great international acclaim. More recently Barney has worked with the likes of Jungle & Sam Fender, and now has a Dolby Atmos mix room at his residential studio, Bluebell Hill, in Kent.
